

SA Rankings

The August national rankings continue to highlight South Australia's presence on the national bowls stage, with a strong contingent of SA players featuring throughout both the men's and women's standings.

Leading the way for South Australia is Nathan Black, who sits at an impressive 13th nationally with 174 ranking points. Black is comfortably the highest-ranked South Australian and is joined inside the national Top 50 by Charlie Hicks, ranked 43rd with 95 points, and Chris Carswell, ranked 46th with 91 points.

SA Men – Top 20

Player	Ranking Points	National Rank
Nathan Black	174	13
Charlie Hicks	95	43
Chris Carswell	91	46
Max Kleinig	74	71
Stuart Forbes	71	80
Jonathon Voigt	67	86
Gary Thompson	63	102
Tony Bowditch	60	116
Simon Geater-Johnson	51	153
Ben Fidock	48	165
Samual Denton	48	165
Wayne Ruediger	42	211
Corey Hicks	40	235
Leigh Brennan	39	251
Daryl Steinwedel	38	252
Jim Barr	36	266
Adam Wilson	35	328
Ashley Halls	34	335
Danyon Greenslade	34	335

On the women's side, Cathryn Greenslade remains South Australia's highest-ranked female player, sitting 39th nationally with 85 ranking points.

Daisy Coe follows at 57th nationally with 73 points, while Rachel Krebbekx sits 74th with 62 points. Karen Gatto also features inside the national Top 100, ranked 85th with 58 points.

SA Women – Top 20

Player	Ranking Points	National Rank
Cathryn Greenslade	85	39
Daisy Coe	73	57
Rachel Krebbekx	62	74
Karen Gatto	58	85
Kylie Day	50	101
Polly Mansell	48	110
Katrina Green	47	114
Anda Panchawat	44	120
Rachel Wolfenden	42	131
Judith Millington	41	135
Judy Rowett	38	151
Sheridon Bodnar	36	159
Judy Strauss	36	159
Di Stor	32	178
Trudy Howard	30	197
Karen Kneebone	30	197
Gayle Steinwedel	29	206
Belinda Pepper	28	215
Kristeena Kirchner	28	215
Judith Bell	26	233

With Nathan Black sitting inside the national Top 20 and a strong group of South Australians represented across both rankings, the August standings continue to showcase the quality and depth of bowls talent across the state.

Congratulations to all South Australian players featured in the August rankings. We look forward to following their performances and progress as the national ranking season continues.

To view the full Bowls Australia National Rankings – August 2026, follow the link below.

<https://bowls.com.au/national-rankings-august-2026/>

The National Rankings System operates on a yearly rolling-points system, where all points accrued are retained for a 12-month period and are then discounted. Players can accrue ranking points from all national events, State Championships, State Champion of Champion and selected club events.